Tracey,

You know how messy I write so I decided to write in pencil. This year has been the greatest, you are sooooo different. You've always been there for me when I needed you, I just hope when you need me I'll be there, I can't hope,
I will. Looking back on the years I've noticed a great change.
Always remember never forget that in my heart I'll always think of you and care about you. You've never judged me and let me have my "space." I'm going to try and stay in town more this summer so I can see you. The most happy thing this year that has happened to me is when you took me to church.
We'll have to do more together. We must stay friends forever.

Love ya lots,

ONE IN THE SPIRIT

No two people are alike. We share similar experiences and yet we all react differently. A wide variety of people exist at Cordell High. We are artists, athletes, philosophers and comedians. Although each of us is individually distinguished by his personality, we share the enthusiastic bond of spirit.

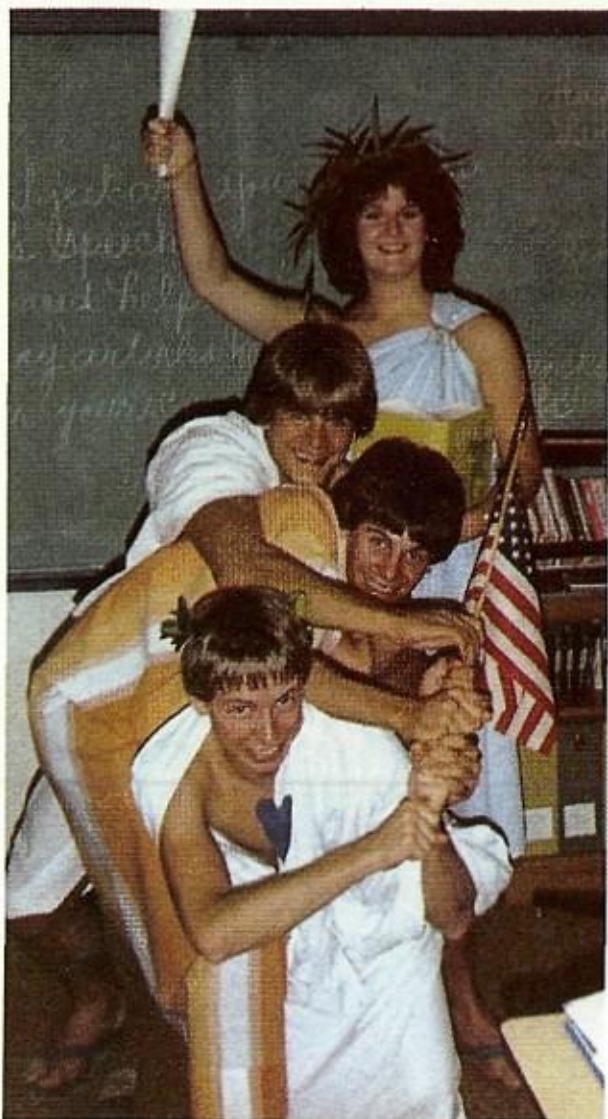

We share the spirit and pride exemplified at pep rallies, sporting events and special assemblies. These are obvious forms of organized spirit enabling us to meet as a group and accomplish something together.

But there is a quieter, more subtle form of spirit at CHS. It comes from friends supporting each other, working together to form a goal, putting up with each other through long weekdays, celebrating accomplishments together and loving each other.

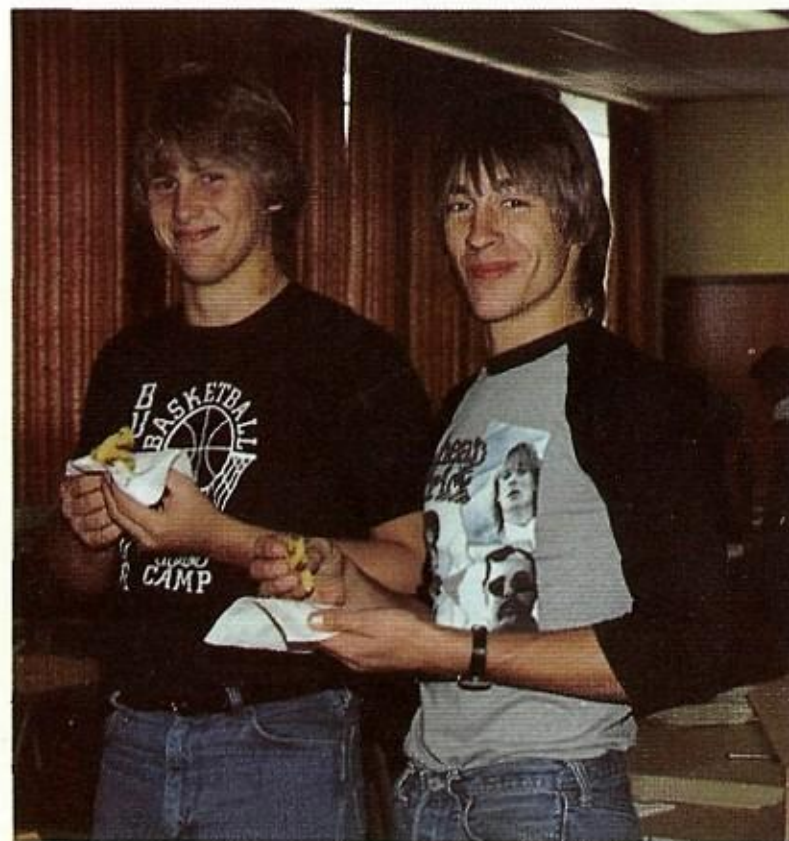

It is not always spoken of, but it is there. Spirit radiates throughout our halls at CHS, and this common bond is what holds us together and makes Cordell High School number one!

A Year of New Experiences

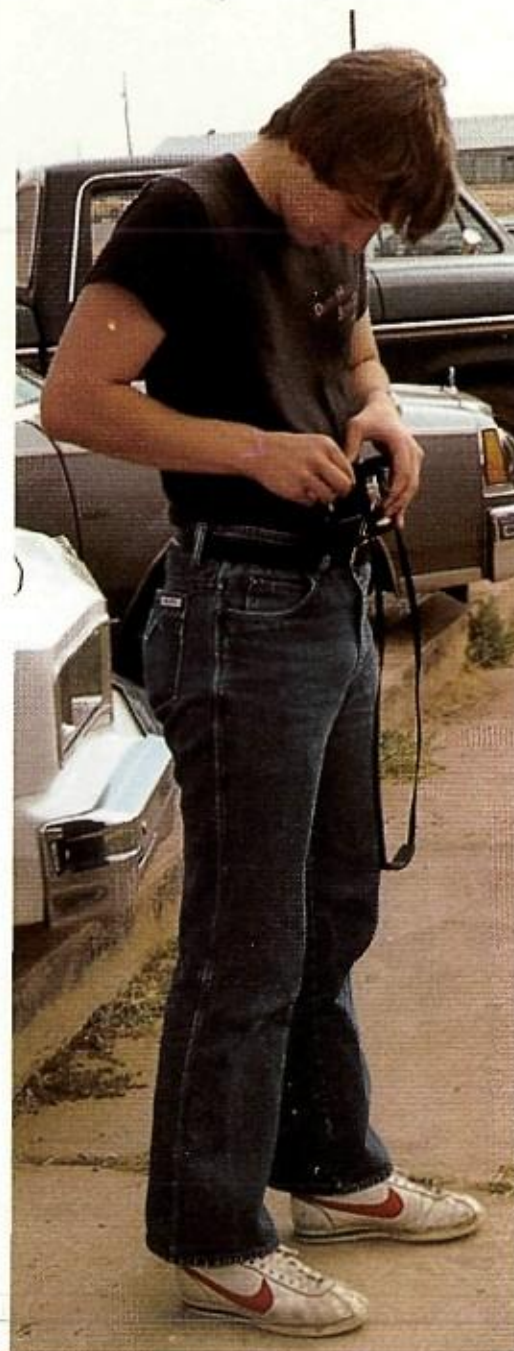

Jacque, Mike, Steve and Matt are caught improvising in speech class.

Monte and Bob find their cooking yummy!

Julie Maddox hides out on Hat Day.

Todd Brunner, yearbook photographer, loads for shooting.

Excited teachers, Mrs. Lidia and Mrs. Cleveland move into the new elementary school.

Cheerleaders stir enthusiasm at Homecoming pep rally.

Primping again, Holly and Julie?

School and snacktime are new experiences for kindergartners.

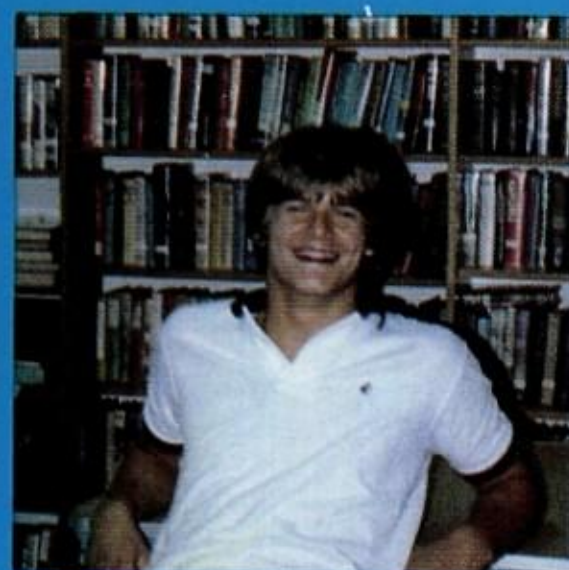

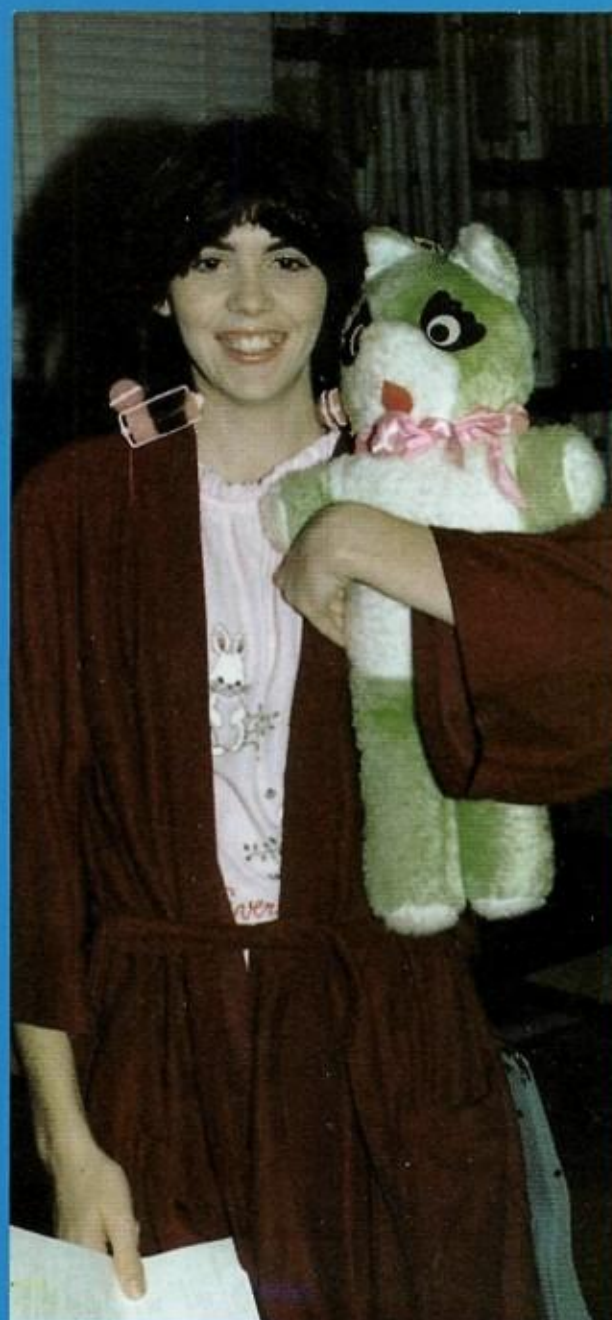

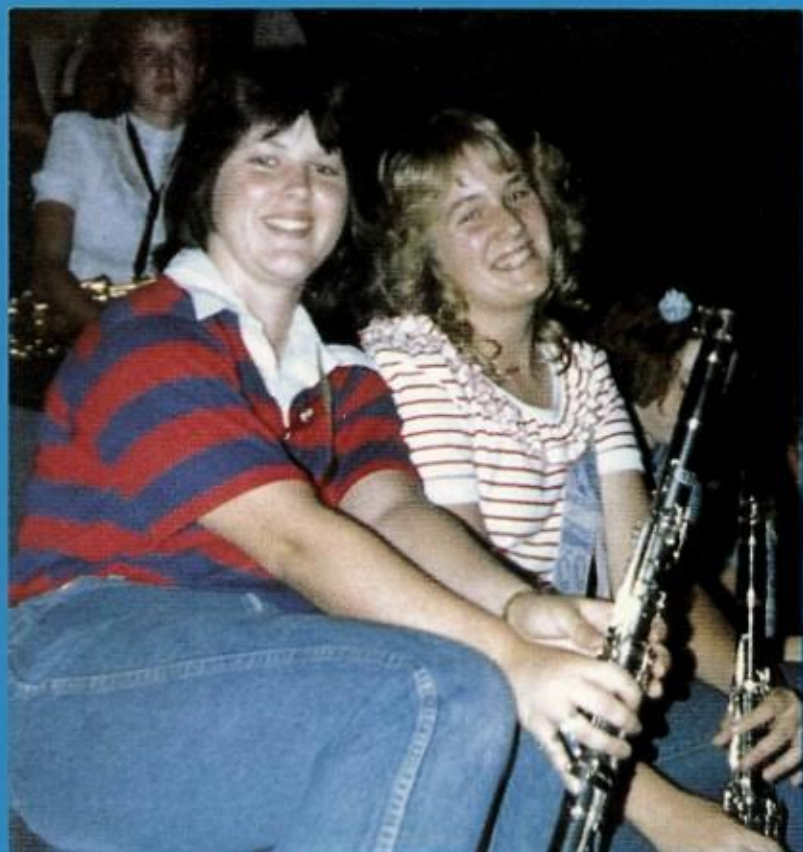

School can do this to you!

With each year comes something new. Usually it is teachers, classes, teammates, friends. This year Cordell added to this list a long-awaited elementary school.

Along with new carpet, flag raisers, chorus uniforms, and a football score board, the 1982-1983 school year was, above all, filled with new experiences.

CLASSES OF '83

CLASS OFFICERS — President Hugh Lawrence, Secretary Dusty McMahan, Vice-President Steve Donley

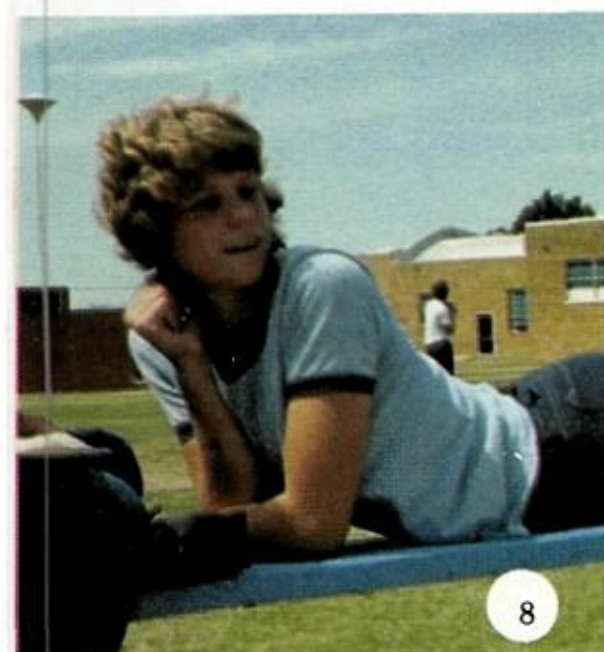

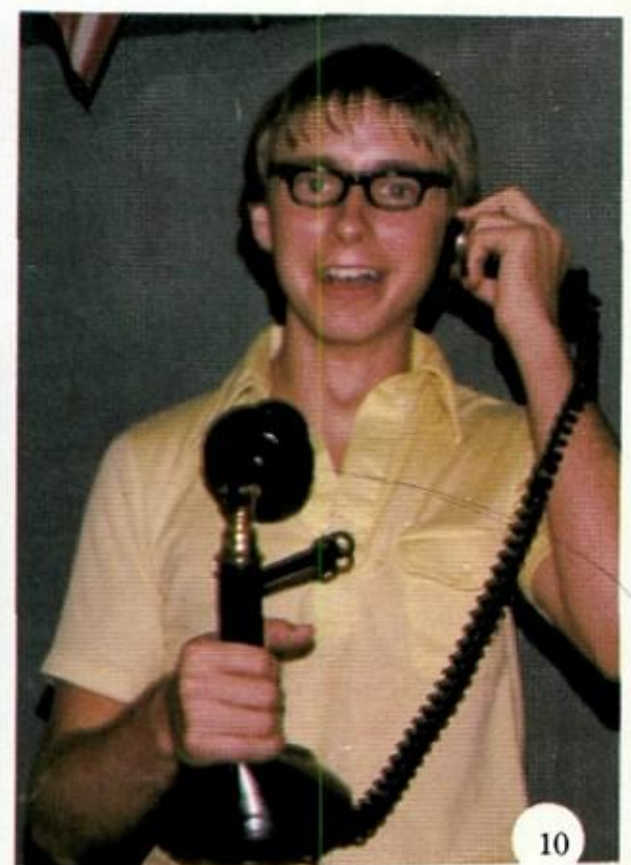

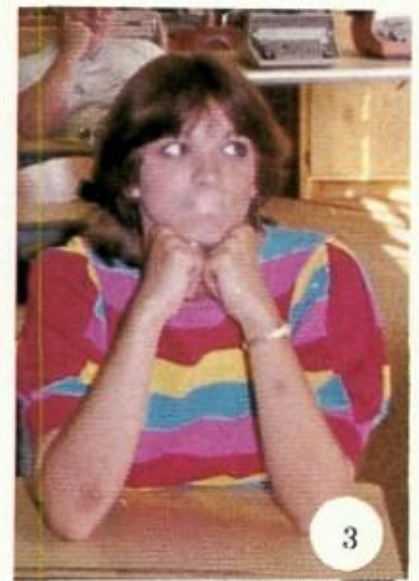

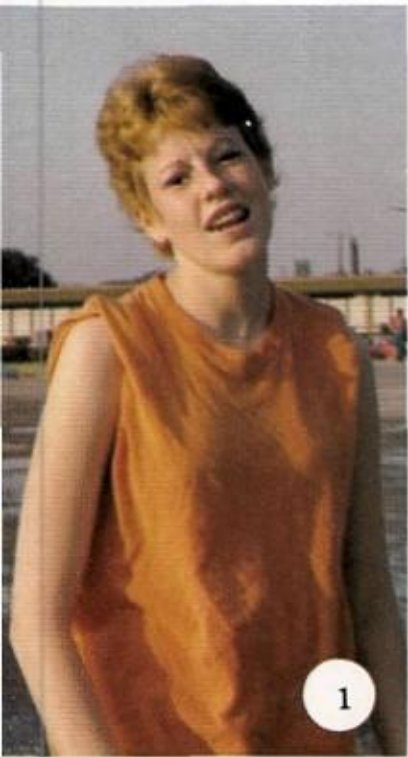

As graduation drew near, it was faced with mixed feelings. Though the Seniors had many plans and dreams for their futures, they found it hard to imagine life after high school.

Never again would they peel out of the school parking lot, run down the halls of Cordell High to beat the bell, or face one of Mrs. Fleck's essay tests. (EEEKK!)

Seniors will never forget their memory-making school days as they walk boldly through the doors of the world.

Featured on the right are typical moments at CHS.

- ① Kyndal protests, "NO, Rodney!"
- ② Senior girls model hats and ties for Spirit Week.
- ③ Gum helps Kristi maintain her quiet composure.
- ④ "Finally got it all together, but I forget where I put it," Bonnie laughs.
- ⑤ Uncle Don wants YOU!
- ⑥ "No, Todd, don't use superglue," Joe warns.
- ⑦ "I did not!" Cindy's favorite line.
- ⑧ "Wake me when the bell rings," says June.
- ⑨ Kelli insists, "But it wasn't me you saw."
- ⑩ He just saw "E.T.," so Matt decides to phone home.

When the year began, this Junior Class was little different from those that had passed before except for the fact that they had a mere 40 members to shoulder the responsibility that had previously been upheld by larger classes.

Told that they would have to raise over $5,000 for a banquet and prom, each individual took on responsibilities and for the first time the class worked together as a team — a team that with the help of energetic sponsors and parents raised more than their set goal by having dinners, mum and magazine sales, dances and raffles.

This hard work paid off in more ways than one. By learning to work together, they built an enormous sense of class pride. This was evident during football homecoming when the juniors took first place in the float competition and crowned the homecoming queen.

Yes, even though they were the smallest class in CHS, they soon proved to everyone that it really is quality, not quantity, that counts!

SOPHOMORES ENJOY THE HIGH LIFE

The difference between lifestyles of junior high and high school is nearly indescribable. Sophomores discover that school can be fun, exciting, and above all ... challenging. They enjoy participating in such events as homecoming queen campaigning, float competition, and serving at the Jr.-Sr. banquet. Another event, and probably the highlight of the year, is getting a driver's license. They worry themselves sick, wondering what to do if they flunk — and some do, several times.

ACTIVITIES

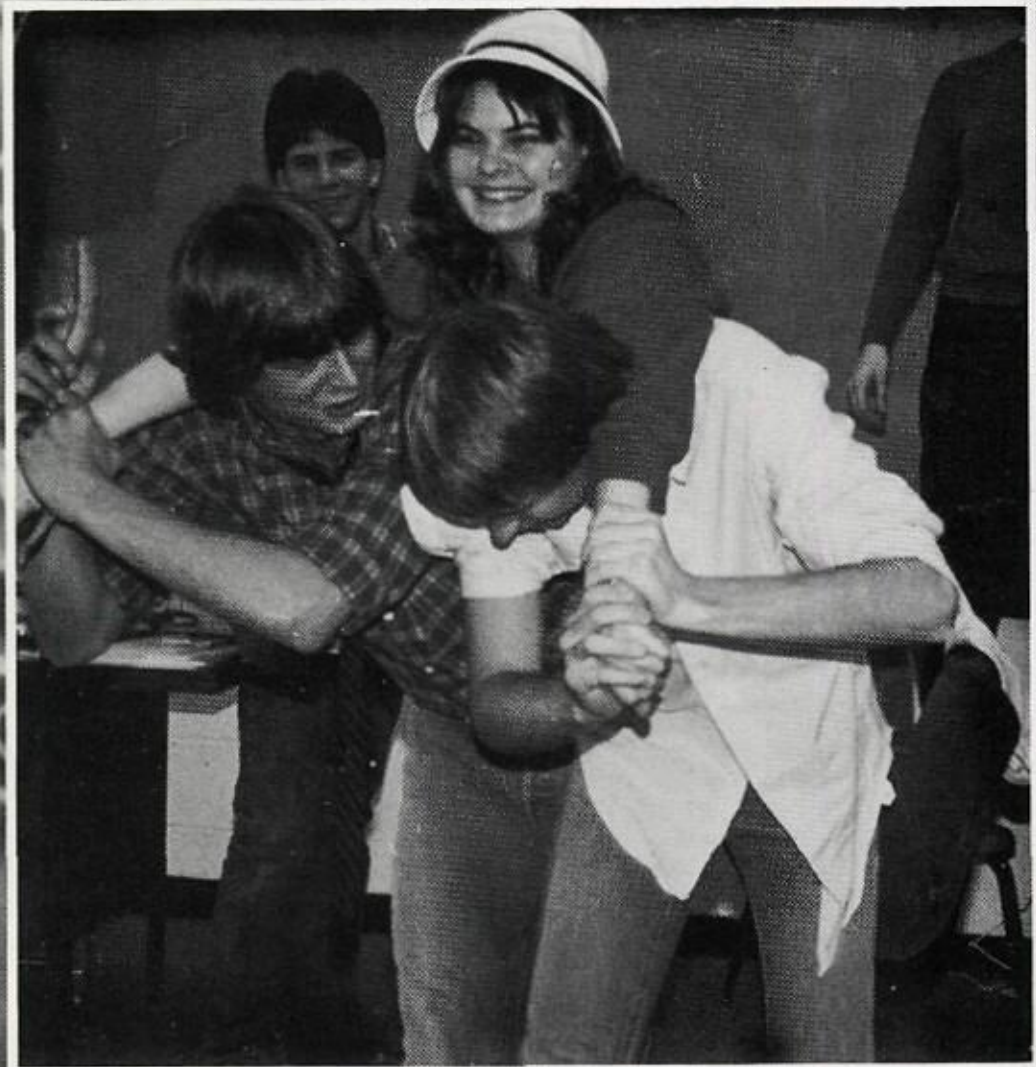

Break the Boredom

1982-83 was the year of E.T., the artificial heart, and the Extra Strength Tylenol scare. It produced video addicts, valley girls, and Men at Work. The American public missed Monday Night Football due to the NFL strike but enjoyed watching the last episodes of M*A*S*H. The U.S. was faced with an economic recession and unemployment soared. It was the year the Redskins triumphed in the Super Bowl and Garfield was seen everywhere.

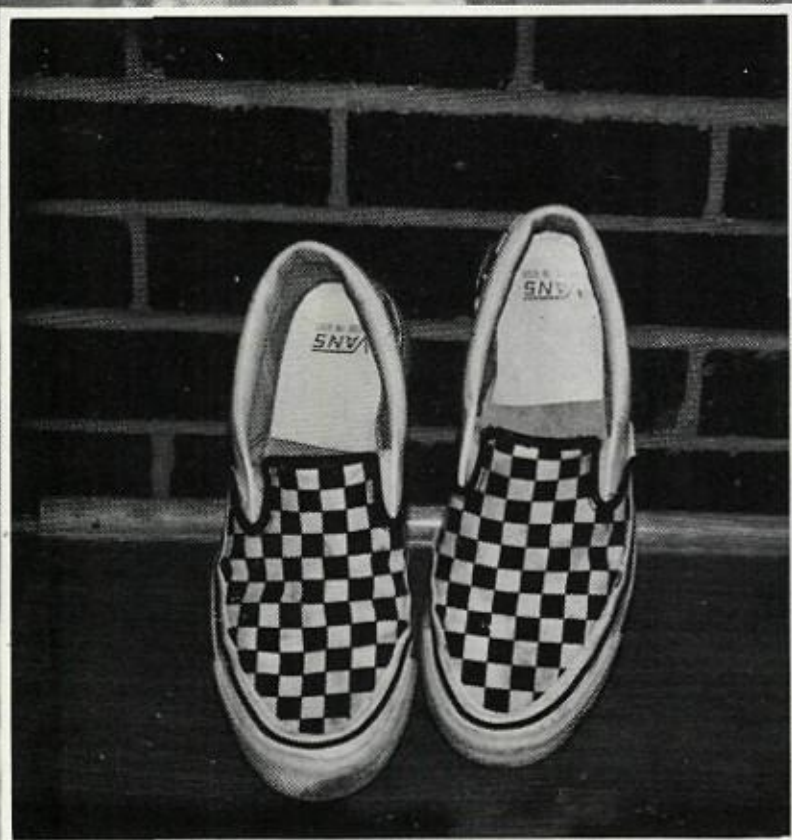

In our own little world here at CHS, '82-'83 was the year of the infamous Blue Devil Handbook, Rock Hole, and the Midnight Prowler. Many private wars were carried on, but the friendships that were made far outnumbered the enemies. We had many triumphs, both individually and collectively, and we were seldom defeated. The students at CHS will long remember the activities that filled our days and our nights. Special people, places, and events have made 1982-83 a year to remember.

Eating is always a favorite activity at CHS!

Mike and Matt say, "She ain't heavy, she's our sister?!"

Bob's shoes reflect "Fast Times at Cordell High."

The party's over.

1982 was a year which held special significance for the state of Oklahoma. It marked the 75th anniversary of statehood, and citizens all across the state participated in special parades, conventions, and celebrations. In its own small way, CHS also demonstrated pride in our state's heritage.

Aided by the speech club, the student council planned a special assembly for the school, complete with skits, showing our state's history in a rather humorous way, speeches, and performances by the band and chorus. But that wasn't all. When the students of CHS put on a show, they go all out. To the thrill of all, Johnny Geronimo (Mike Cotten) and the Wigwams (Matt Jones and Charlie Mangus) made a special debut performance and entertained the audience with their own brand of rock-n-roll. The assembly was concluded with the singing of "Oklahoma."

The student council, with the help of Mrs. Merrill, planned other activities for the student body including homecomings, spirit week, and a computer dating match-up to raise money. It also provided a medium through which the student body could express its opinions and desires.

Although the band is not very big, it is still the Pride of Cordell. The band's motto this year is "We do it better." The 42 members work hard to be the best in this part of the state. They marched at most of the football games and gave the crowd a few extra surprises with fireworks, Pac-Man, and even Annie.

The band rehearsed to maintain its superior ratings from the '82 season. This year, the band's ultimate goal was sweepstakes.

The FHA boys and girls have been on the move this year. They have had a Rock-a-thon, and a covered dish dinner for fund raisers. They've been to a haunted house, a progressive dinner; they've volunteered their services to the hospitals and the rest home; they've had a mystery dinner, spaghetti supper and a come-as-you-are breakfast. They also made a Thanksgiving basket and brought Christmas gifts for the needy. They even made birthday cakes for the elderly people.

How in the world did they have time to put all that into one school year? Good job, FHA.

- ① Shelly Dunlap finally found someone to be cuddly with.
- ② Monte Nickel chows down.
- ③ It's Christy Horn's Bed-E-Bye 'time.
- ④ Becky Ball, in happier days.
- ⑤ Deanna Jiles is sweet and innocent.
- ⑥ Gary Frank returns to his childhood.
- ⑦ Michele Disario enjoys life.

FUTURE FARMERS WIN RECOGNITION

Tending and grooming show animals paid off well for FFA members who placed high in over twenty stock shows this year.

The club's slave sale in November not only provided entertainment but earned a record-breaking $8500, with Lana Twyman bringing $1250. Extra money was earned from the sale of the famous Blue and Gold sausage.

Five officers and Mr. Miller represented the Cordell chapter at the National FFA Convention in Kansas City.

Mrs. Long, Kerri Lowber, Julie Bash, Holly Windham, Todd Brunner, Joe Long, Kelli Prewitt, Kristi Waters, Bonnie Sutton, Renee Cotney, Jerry McGrath.

"But I need pictures, Todd!" "How do you spell this word?" "I can't possibly make 88 pictures fit this layout!" "Somebody help! I'm stuck!" "You mean I have to redo the whole thing?"

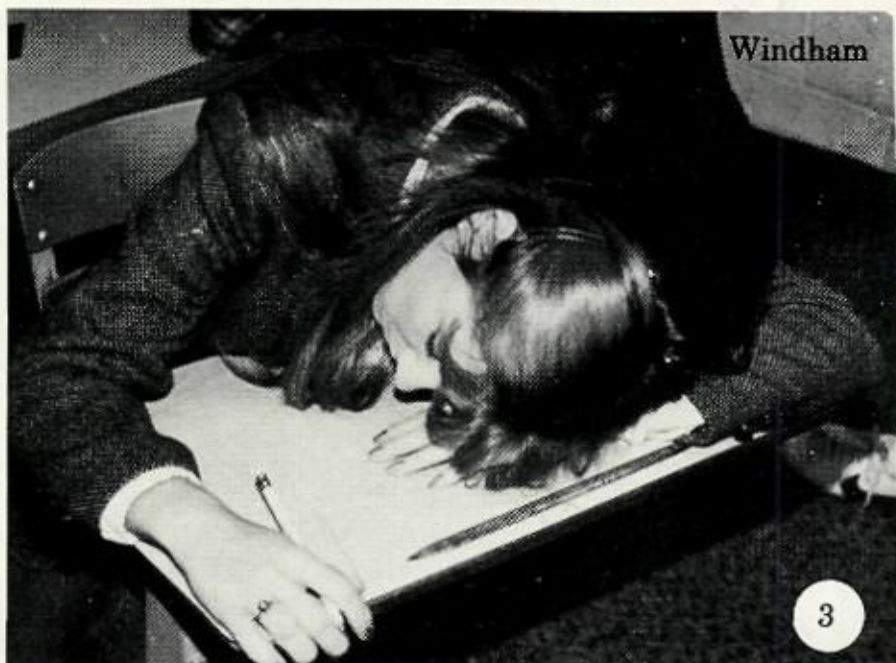

Life in room 5 is noisy and confusing as annual staffers try to organize their clutter to produce a neat book. All agree yearbook class is only for hardy souls who thrive on continual challenge. Selling ads, designing layouts, spelling every name correctly, writing fresh copy — these are daily jobs. But cokes and pizza lighten the suffering of night work, and staffers anticipate compliments when the '83 book arrives in May.

"A wild and crazy class!" Matt mimics in his best Steve Martin voice. Speech may be crazy on improvisation or pantomime days, but pressure brings panic when ten-minute speeches or acting assignments are due.

This year, Cordell's speech department affiliated with the National Forensic League. To gain league membership, a student must earn twenty-five points by participating in speech tournaments and programs. First to fulfill membership requirements were Steve Donley, Roy Lee Lindsey, Jacque Hale, and Anne Miller.

Devil Teams Make Season Exciting

With the special plays, extra baskets, or the split second finish, the sports at Cordell High kept us on the edge of our seats.

This year the Blue Devils won the Bi-district Championship in football, the Boys' basketball team won district and the Girls' team was Runner-up. The Cordell teams all improved this year, which made us proud to show our support with that Blue Devil Spirit.

Allen, Travis and Lynn show Ron some new weight lifting techniques.

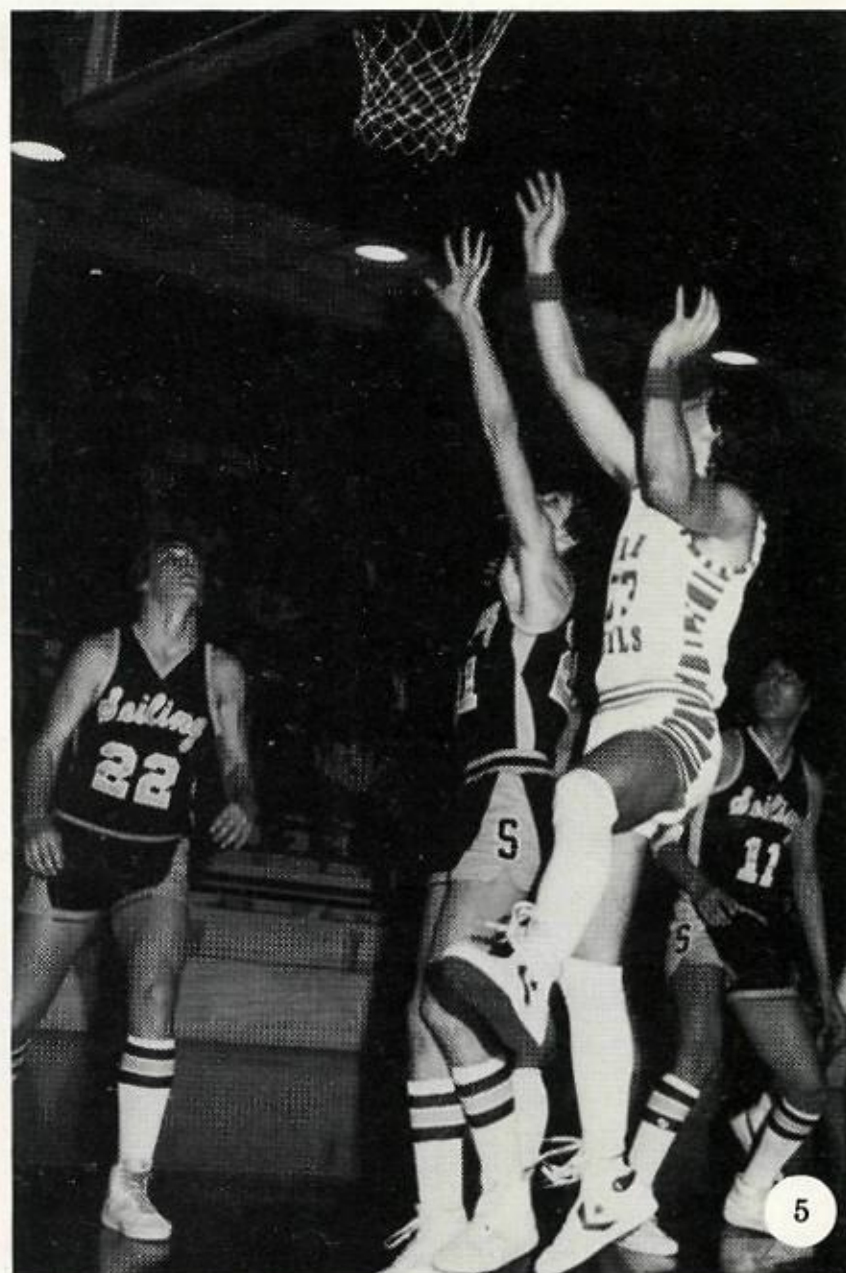

It's not nap time yet, Greg.

DEVILS RATED NUMBER 1 END WITH 11-2 SEASON Place Two on All-State Teams

Blue Devils paid for a tremendous season with blood, sweat and tears. Ranked #1 by the Daily Oklahoman for four weeks, the team won Bi-District, losing only to the Hobart Bearcats who took State.

Most exciting moments of the '82 season included Coach Mantle being kicked out of the Carnegie game. At the home game with Jones, the band shot fireworks and Cordell merchants provided an airplane carrying GO BLUE DEVILS lights to fly over the stadium.

Even more memorable? That riot after the Cordell-Jones conflict!

CHRIS RAINBOLT — had one of the most successful high school careers of any Blue Devil. He was named to The Daily Oklahoman All-State team and The Tulsa World All-State team. He was also named to the All-Regional and to the All-District teams. Chris had a total of 5207 offensive yards, 60 touchdowns, 5 pass interceptions, and 1 fumble recovery.

HUGH LAWRENCE — was rewarded for his outstanding career at middle linebacker for the three years by being named to the Oklahoma Coaches All-State team. He was also named to All-Regional and All-District teams. Hugh had a total of 486 tackles, 5 fumble recoveries, and 3 pass interceptions during his career.

Although the Blue Devils were able to clean up the football field, they had a problem keeping their locker room clean.

Our Modern Day Lucy (Scott Brooking), holds the ball securely while Charlie Brown (Skip Wrightsman) tries for that 50 yard field goal.

The 1982-83 girls' basketball team dribbled and shot their way to a successful season. The athletes showed courage and determination throughout the year. They had some experience but the team was mainly composed of young, natural athletes that showed desire and the capability to work as a team and a strong desire to be the best under the coaching of Gary Maynard. Even though their record showed some losses, the girls worked, fought hard, and made it clear that they are winners too.

- ① Burns Flat looks stunned as Debbie gets by them for an easy two point.
- ② Kristen Giblet puts the move on Burns Flat offenders.
- ③ Rhonda Maynard goes up for two against Burns Flat.
- ④ Debbie Wedel puts it up and over tough defender, Joy Ensey, from Dill City.
- ⑤ Tammy Sturgeon hustles to stop Burns Flat's offensive attack.

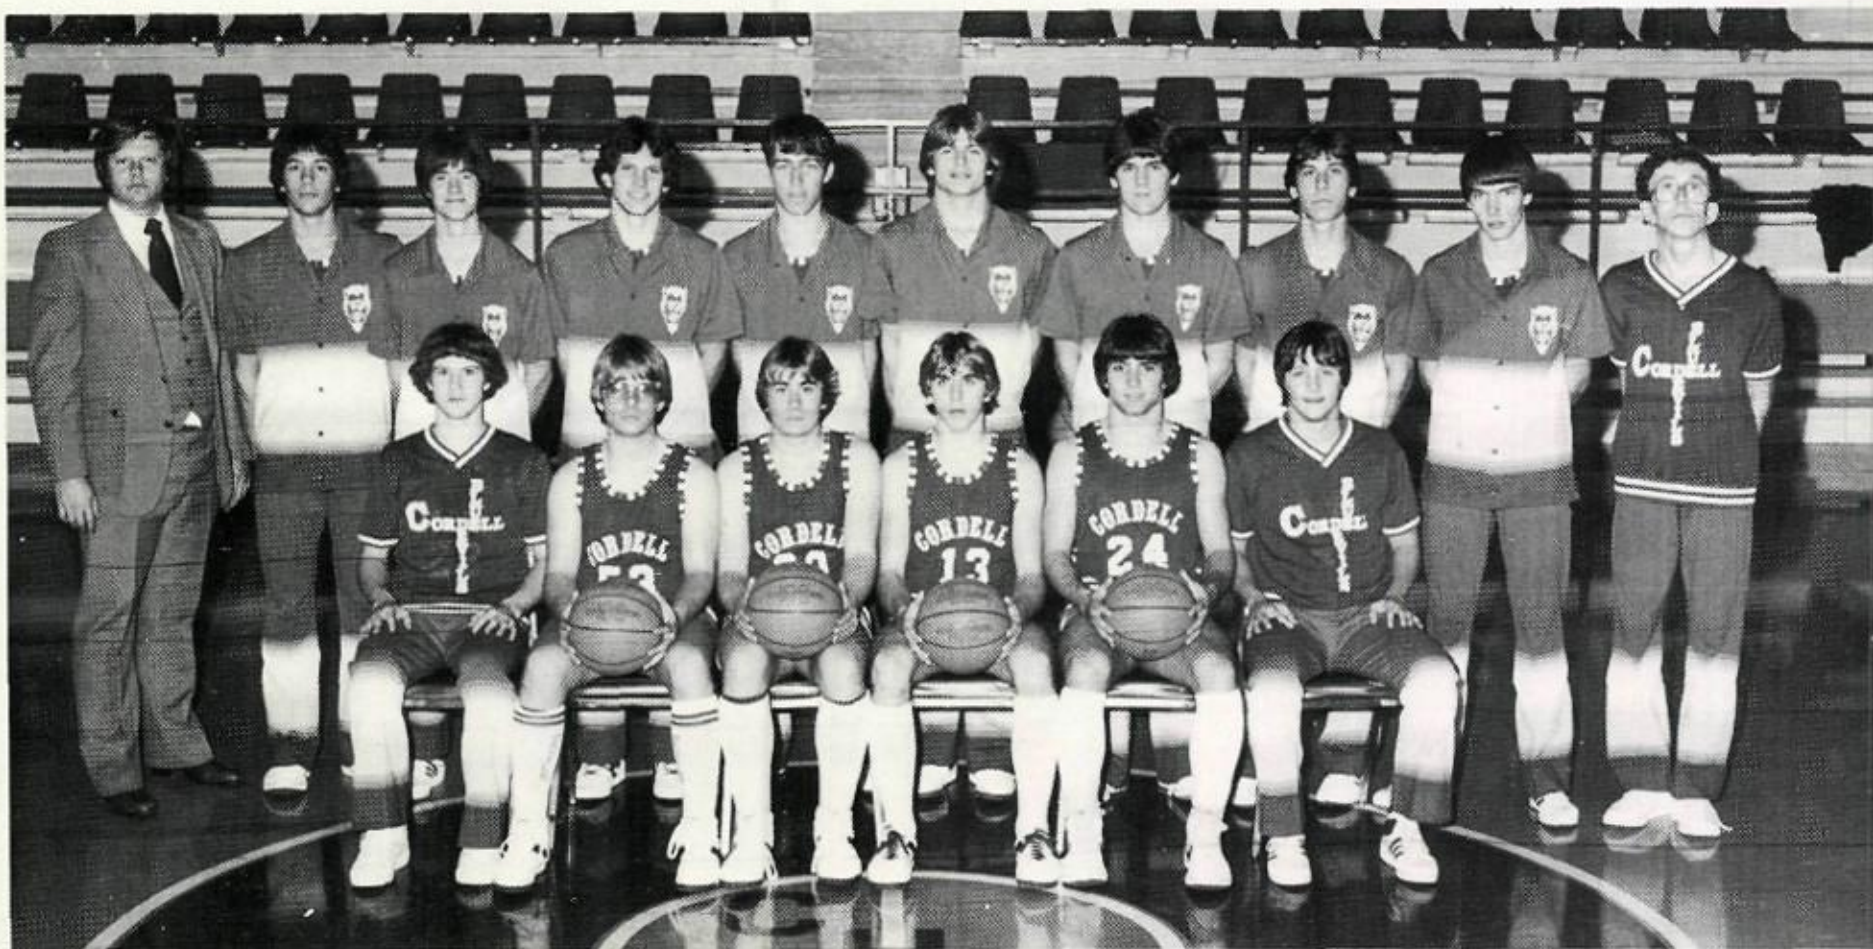

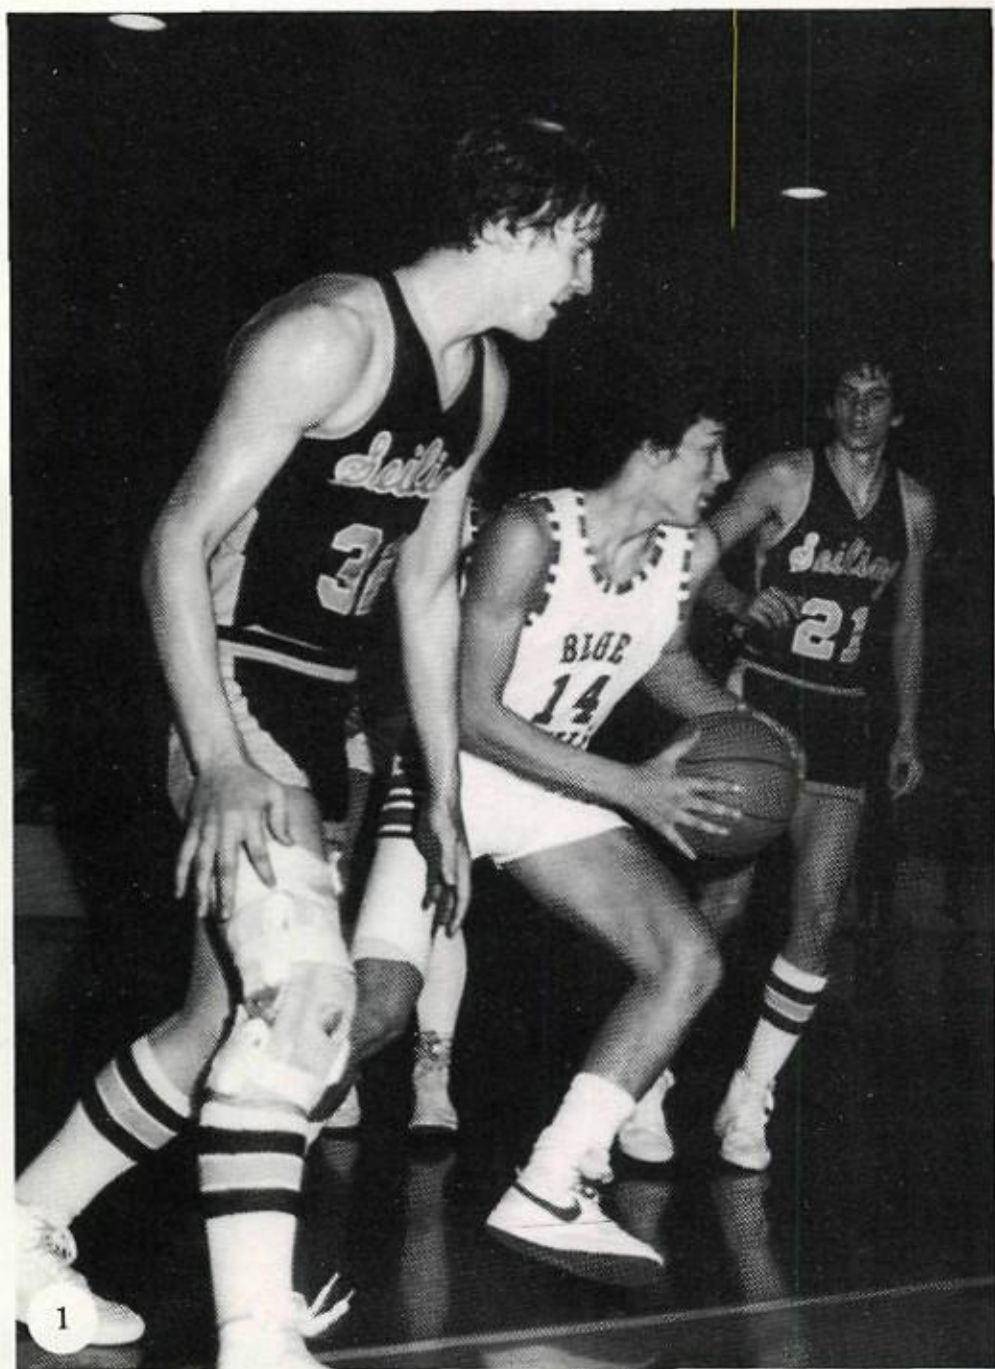

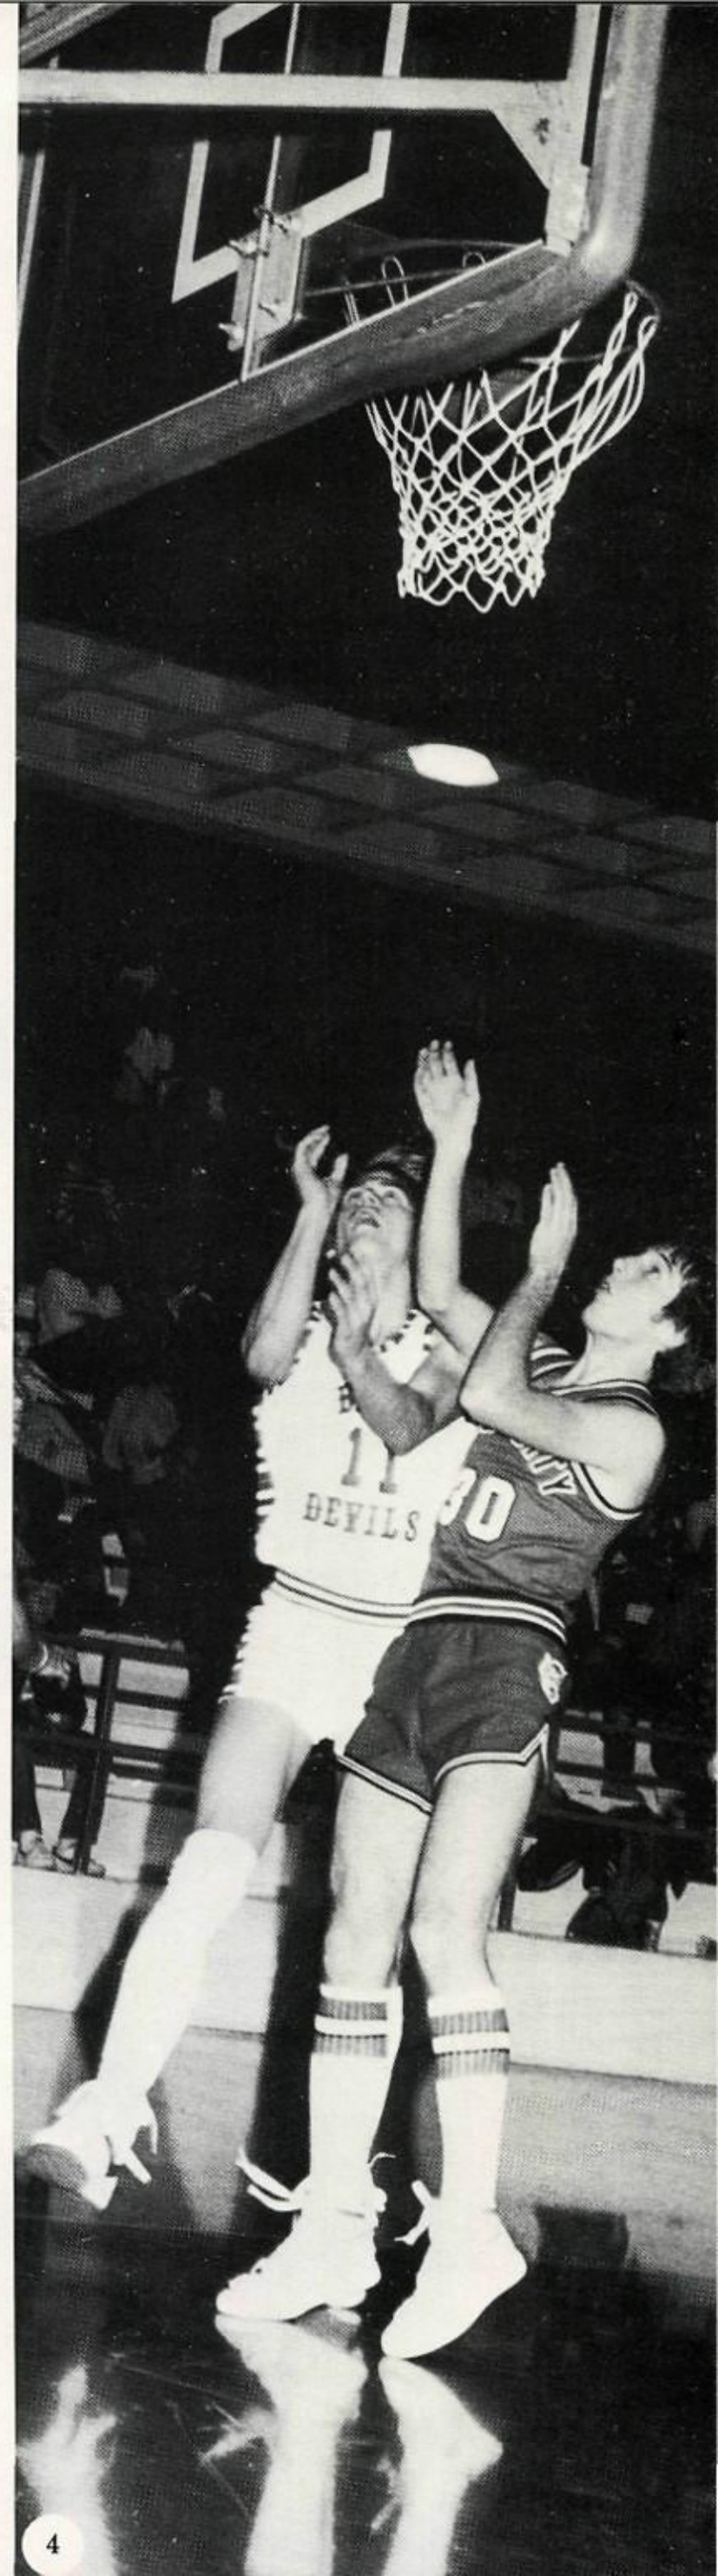

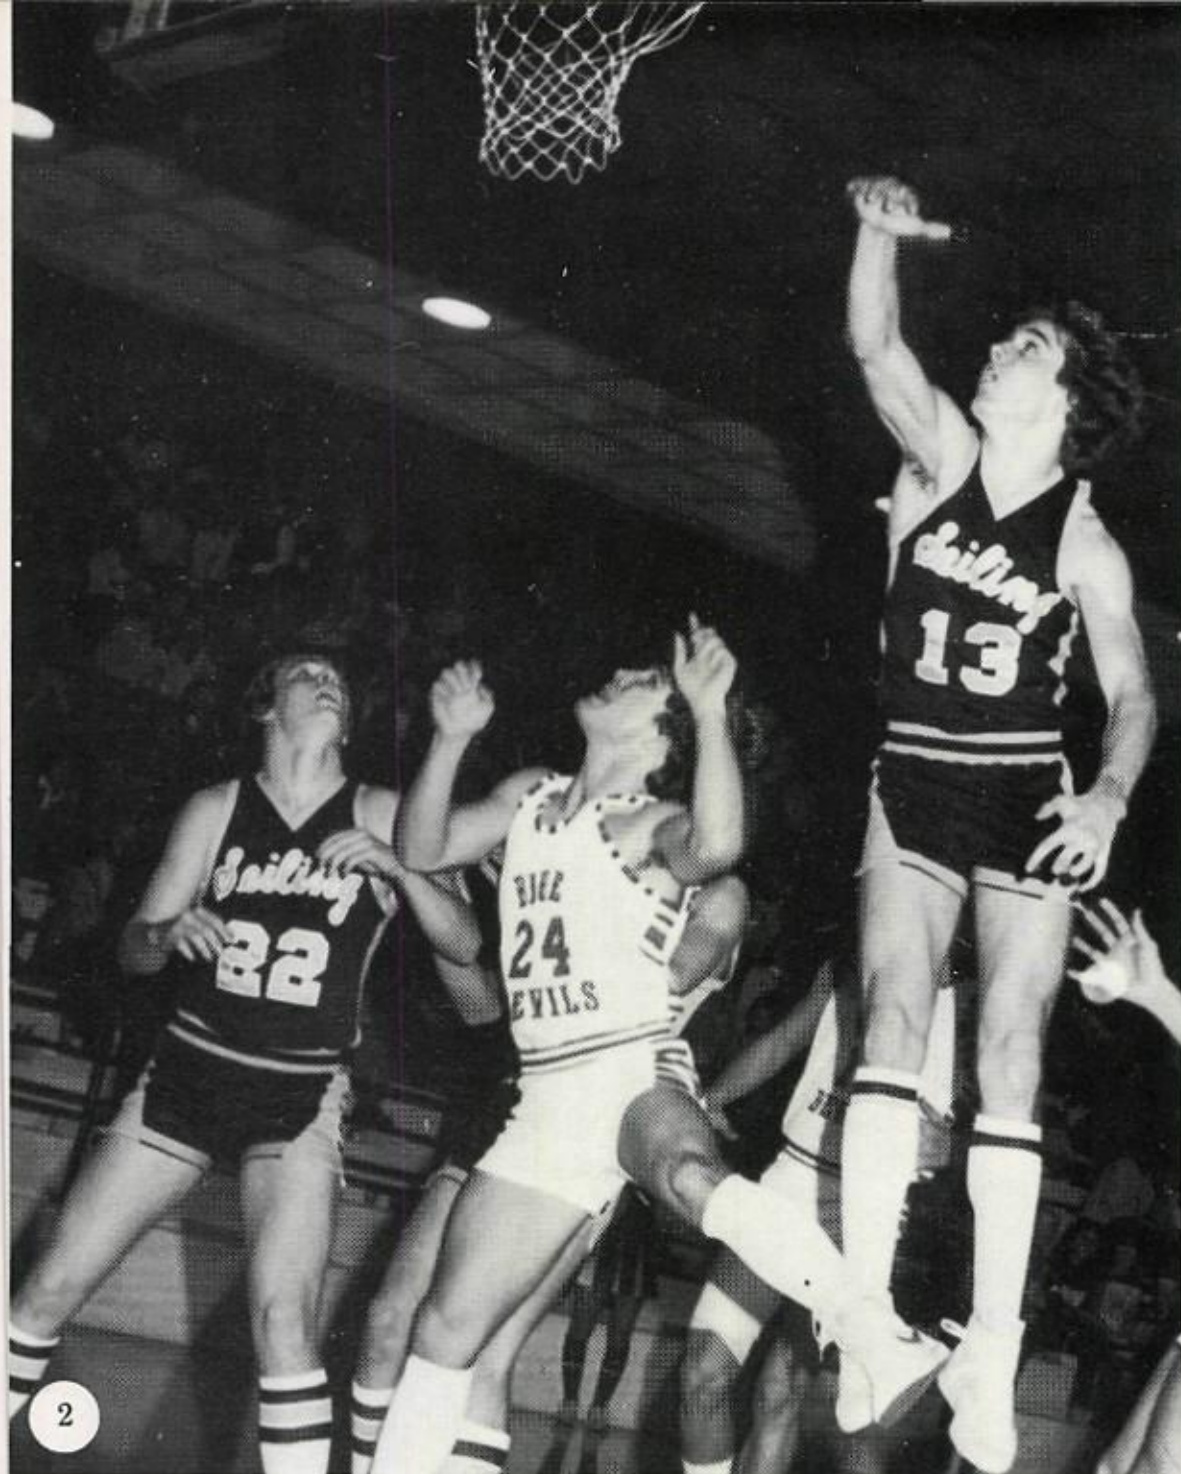

Devils Go for Glory

Game after game the Blue Devils kept fans on the edges of their seats by performing brilliantly in tight situated games and usually coming out on top. This season the Devils made up for a lack of height and strength with depth and great desire. Accurate shooting and lots of hustle boosted them to many of their victories. They have shown pride, spirit, and determination under their new head coach, Ray West.

- ① Skip Wrightsman dribbles through two Seiling defenders. Go get 'em Chips!
- ② Sr. Chris Rainbolt gave his all for the Blue Devils in the 1982-83 season.

1

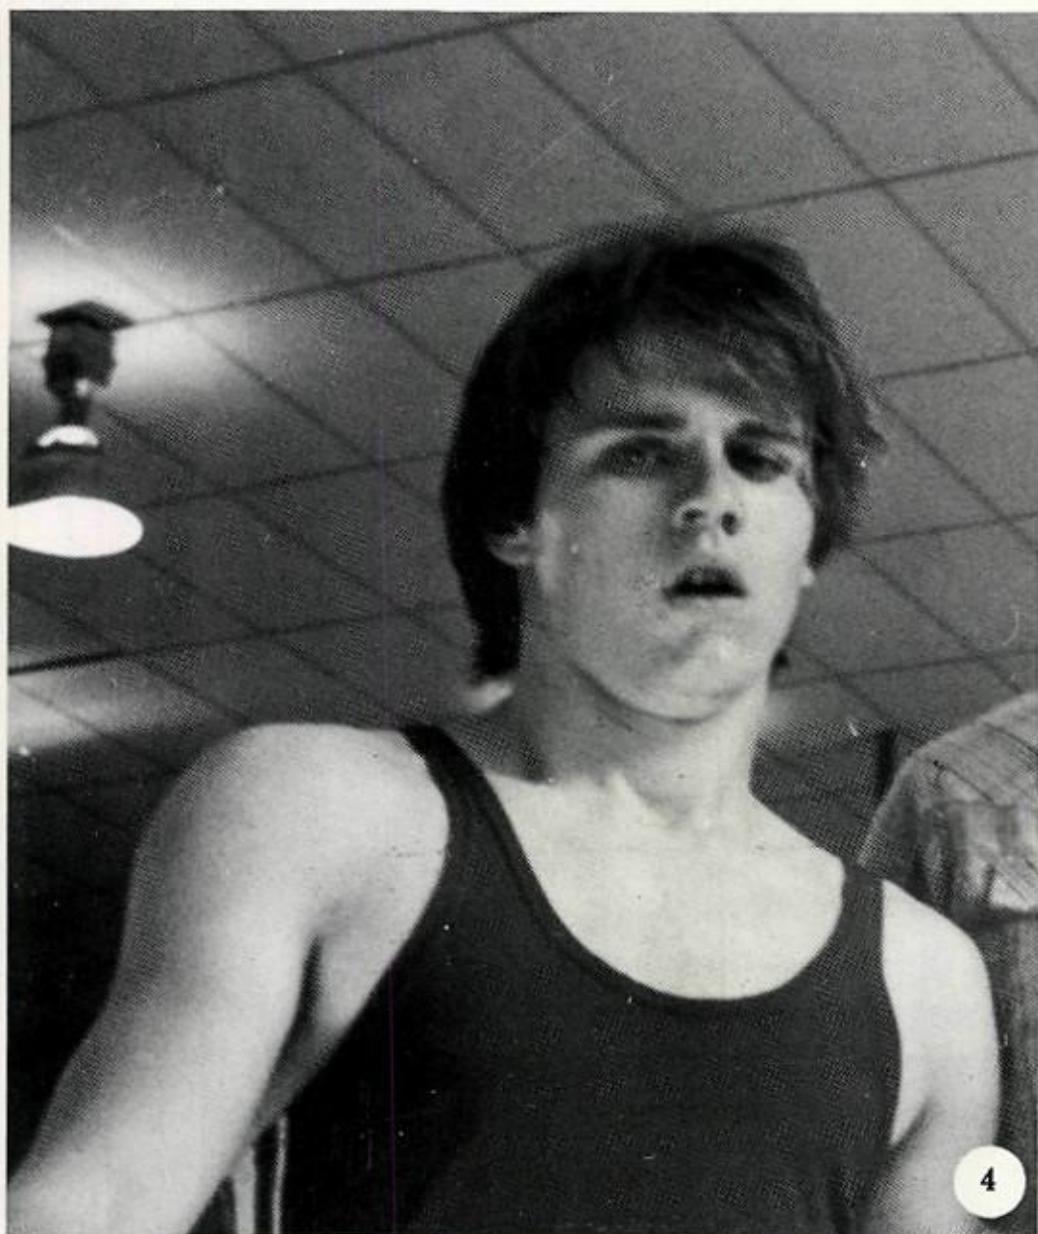

When Dan Provence came to town, he laid the law down. And from that time on the Cordell Blue Devils became known as Dan's Dandy Devils. Dan's Dandy Devils had enough spirit to never get discouraged, enough dedication to bump a pound and still pin their man, and enough determination to be $\frac{1}{2}$ pound under and still leave Grandma's homemade apple pie alone.

Dedicated Leaders Make the Best Better

Dedicated to excellence, administrators and school board members continually search for ways to improve the quality of education for every student.

Board members give their time freely and willingly to assist in directing the educational plan. Important decisions include the careful investment of funds for building improvements and equipment.

Superintendent — Jerry Burrows

ELEMENTARY STUDENTS ENJOY $900,000 CHANGE

After students had been bused to three elementary schools for years, the Board decided to unify students and faculty by providing a totally new set-up.

Conversion of Washington Elementary was completed in August 1982. Lincoln and Jefferson schools were closed, supplies and equipment moved, and all students K through 6 enrolled at the spacious and brightly decorated Cordell Elementary School.

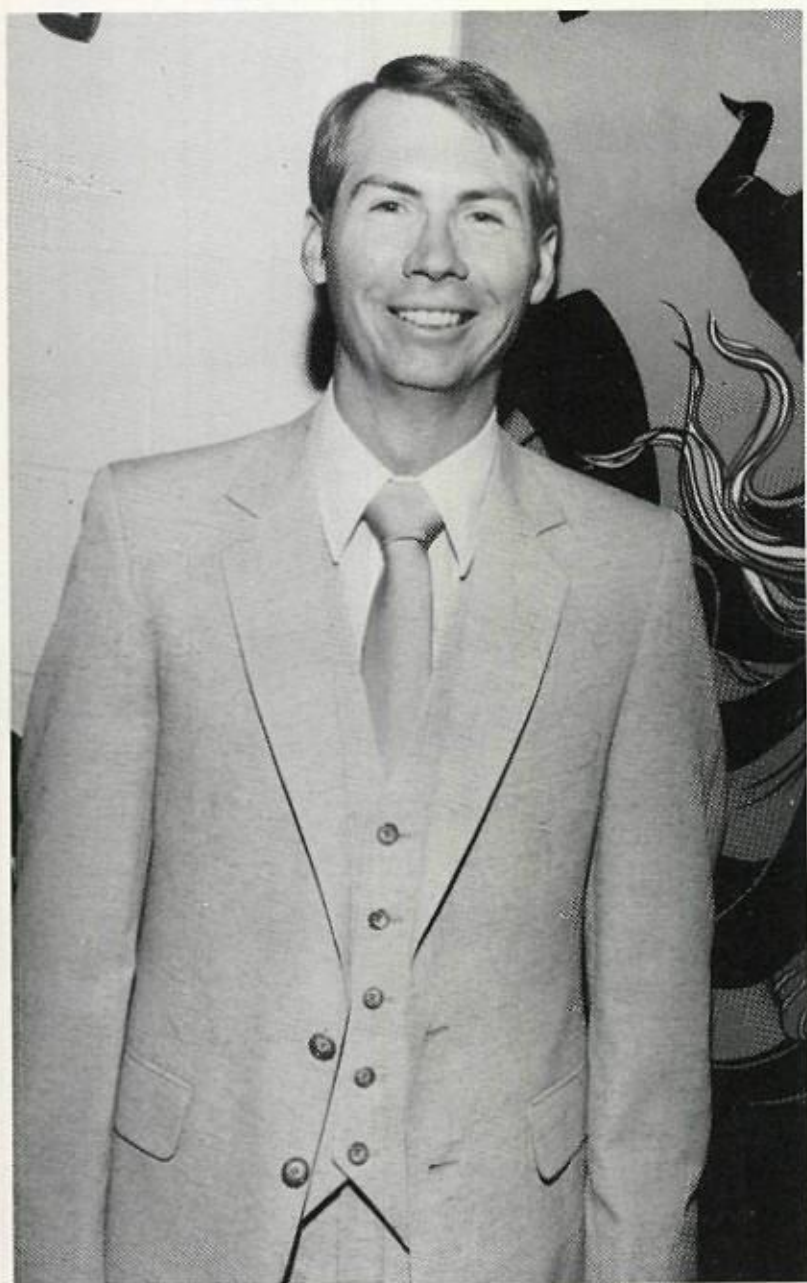

High School Principal — Gary Maynard

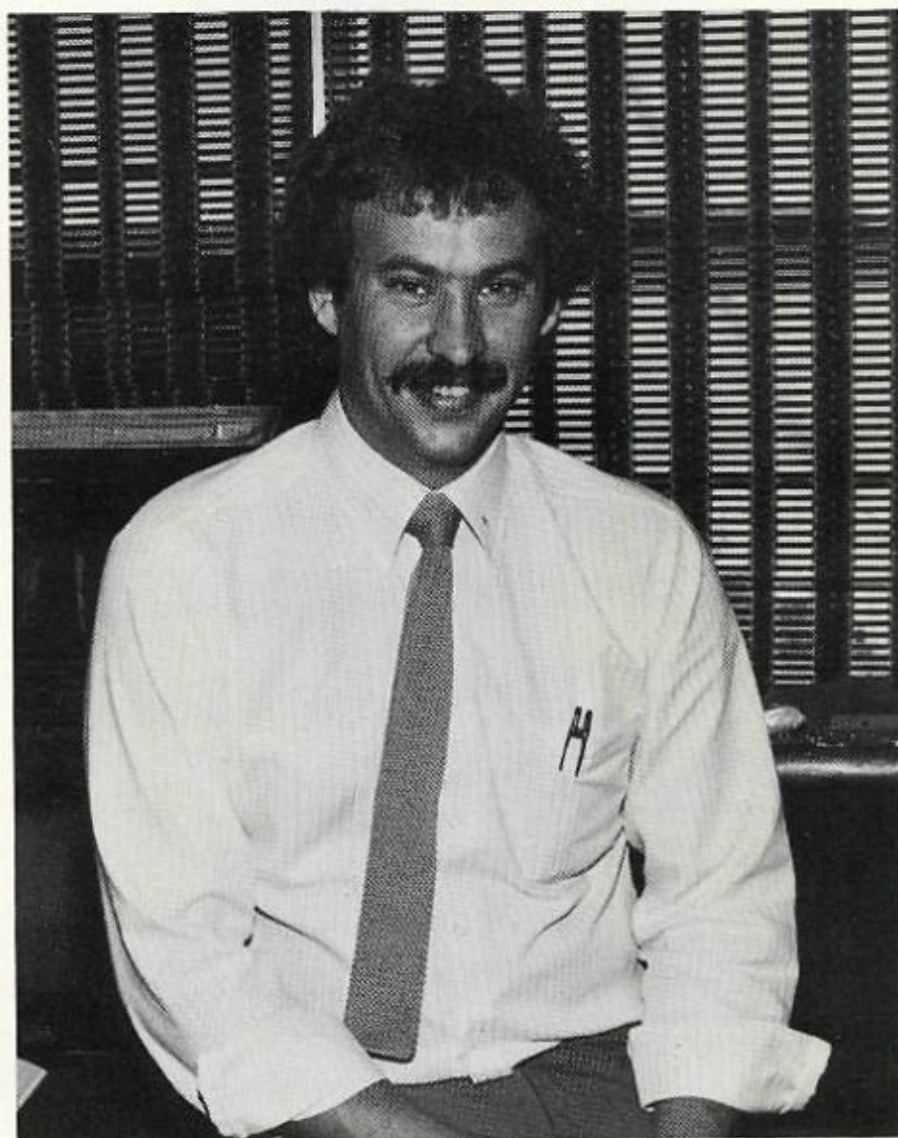

Mr. Maynard, Mr. Burrows and Mr. Ball, bored of education, instruct students in the fine art of snow ball throwing.

Elementary Principal — Rocky Arrington

Junior High Principal — Mike Hyatt

Faculty

Teaching means several things. It means accomplishment — an accomplishment that will be remembered for a lifetime. It means guidance and support, and a year-round dedication. It means enlightenment as well as instruction. But mostly teaching means love — a love for the job, a love for the students, and a love for teaching the students.

Although these wrestlers work out in two separate classes, they get it all together for matches.

Front: Ross Greer, Jon England, Mike Mayfield, Doug Albert, Back: Bill Frahm, Austin Wynn, Corey Dawes, Charles Shipp.

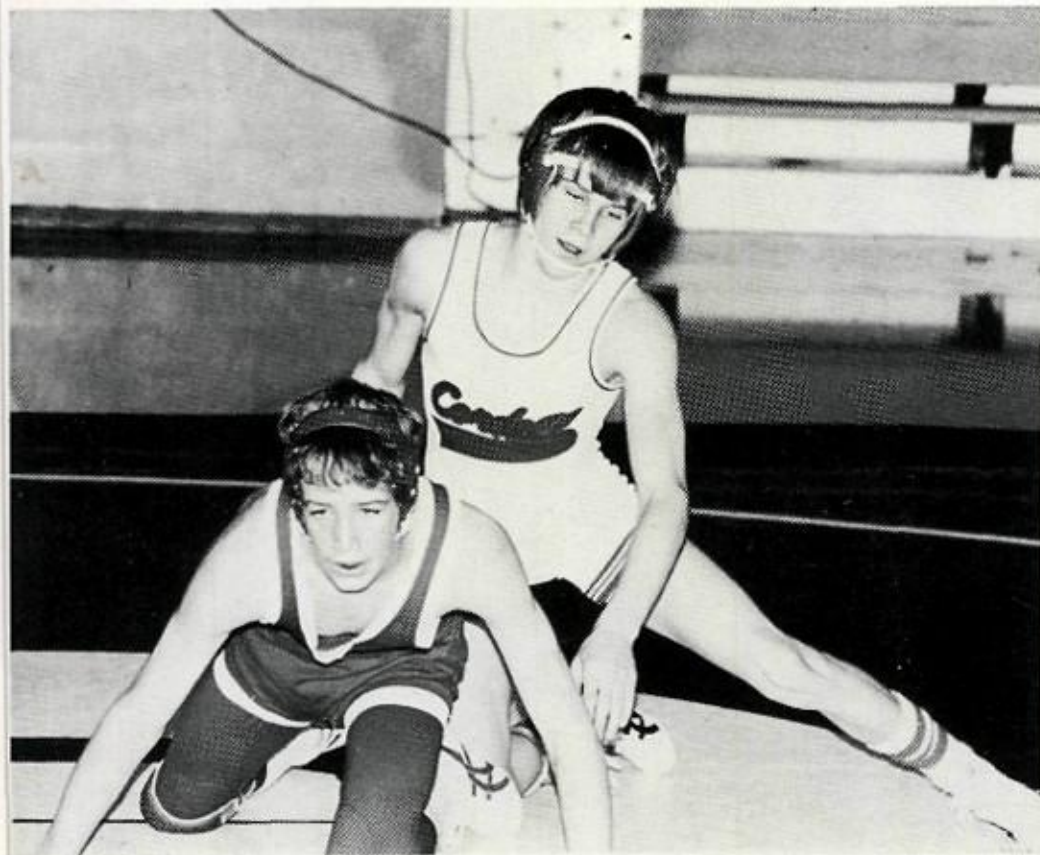

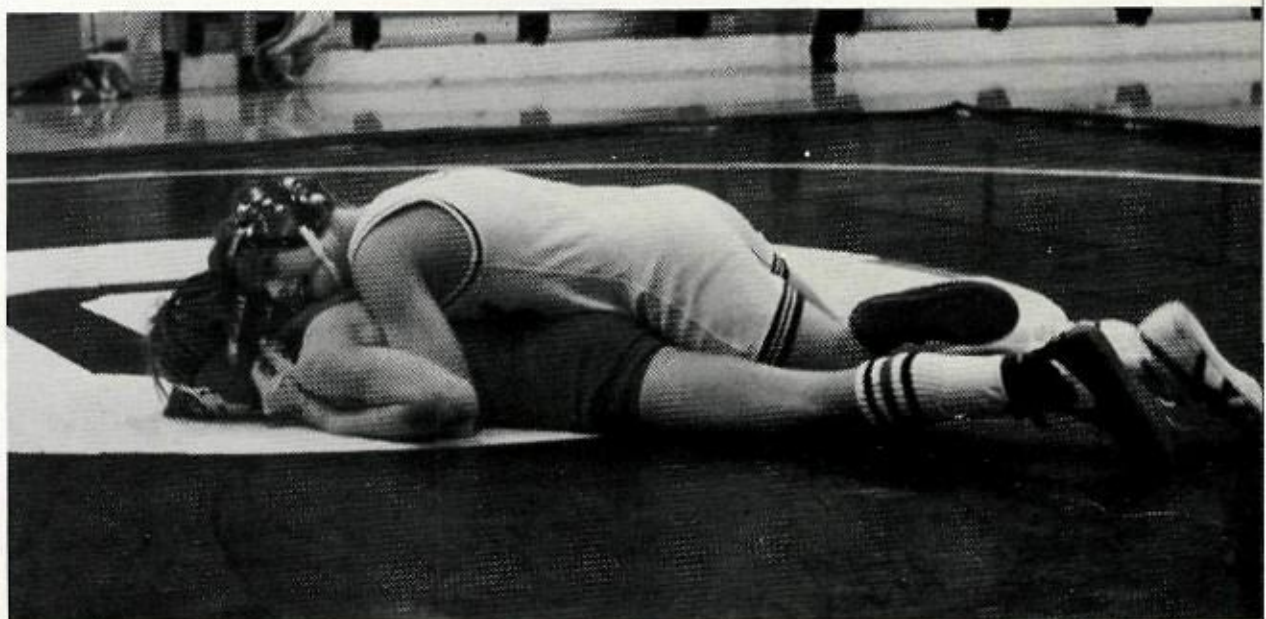

Coach Provence talk is putting Chad to sleep.

This year the key word in wrestling was improvement. Under the guidance of Coach Danny Provence the team placed 2nd in the Cordell Invitational and 5th in the Western Conference. Kurtis Hoefar placed 1st at Conference; Jim Price and Robert Waldrop 2nd.

Jon says, "Now that I have him what do I do???"

Jim's opponent is wondering how to get out from under his ride.

Baseball/Weight Lifting

Cheerleaders Stir Spirit!

Big mouths and coordination help cheer teams to victory.

Susan B. and Ginny B. discuss what to do at half-time.

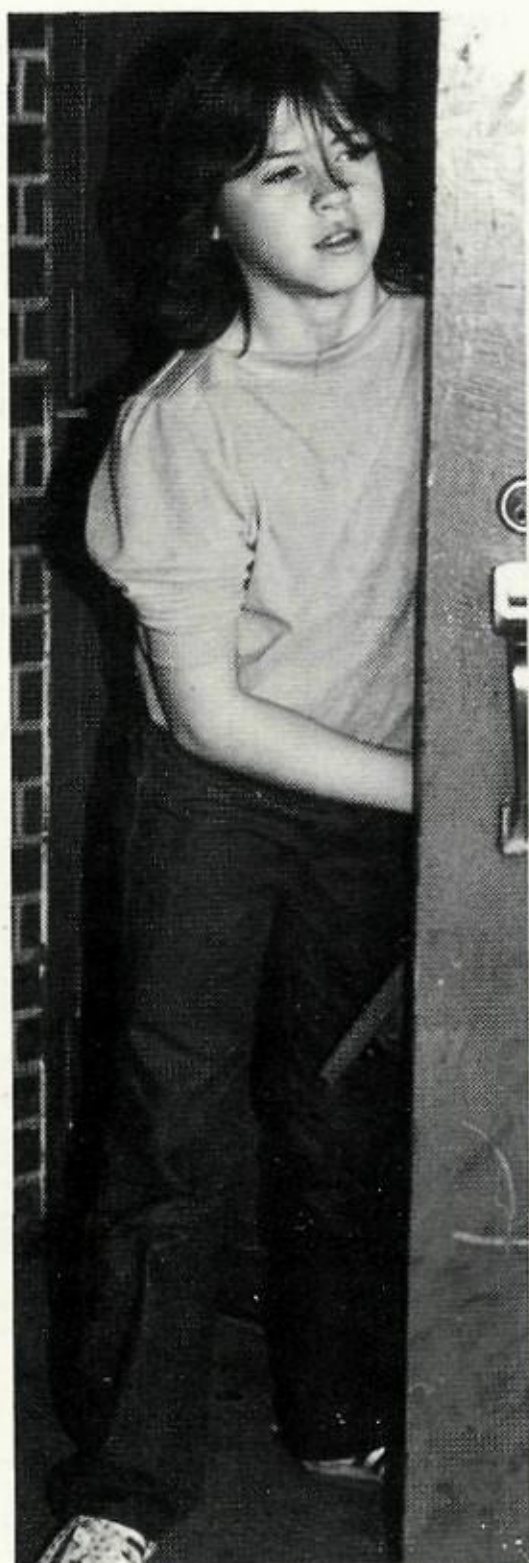

Top to Bottom: Ginny Brown, Michelle McMillan, Kim Palesano, Susan Bash, Kristi Boothe, Melissa Norton, Tracy Chitwood.

The 1982-83 cheerleaders for CJH were always on the run. Besides having to be at every football game, basketball game, and wrestling match, the girls had to prepare pep assemblies and decorate the halls. Keeping the spirit high at CJH was not always an easy job but these seven girls managed to help many Cordell teams to victory with their endless energy.

Jr. Devils Have Fun

Are the teacher's legs really that sexy, Mike?

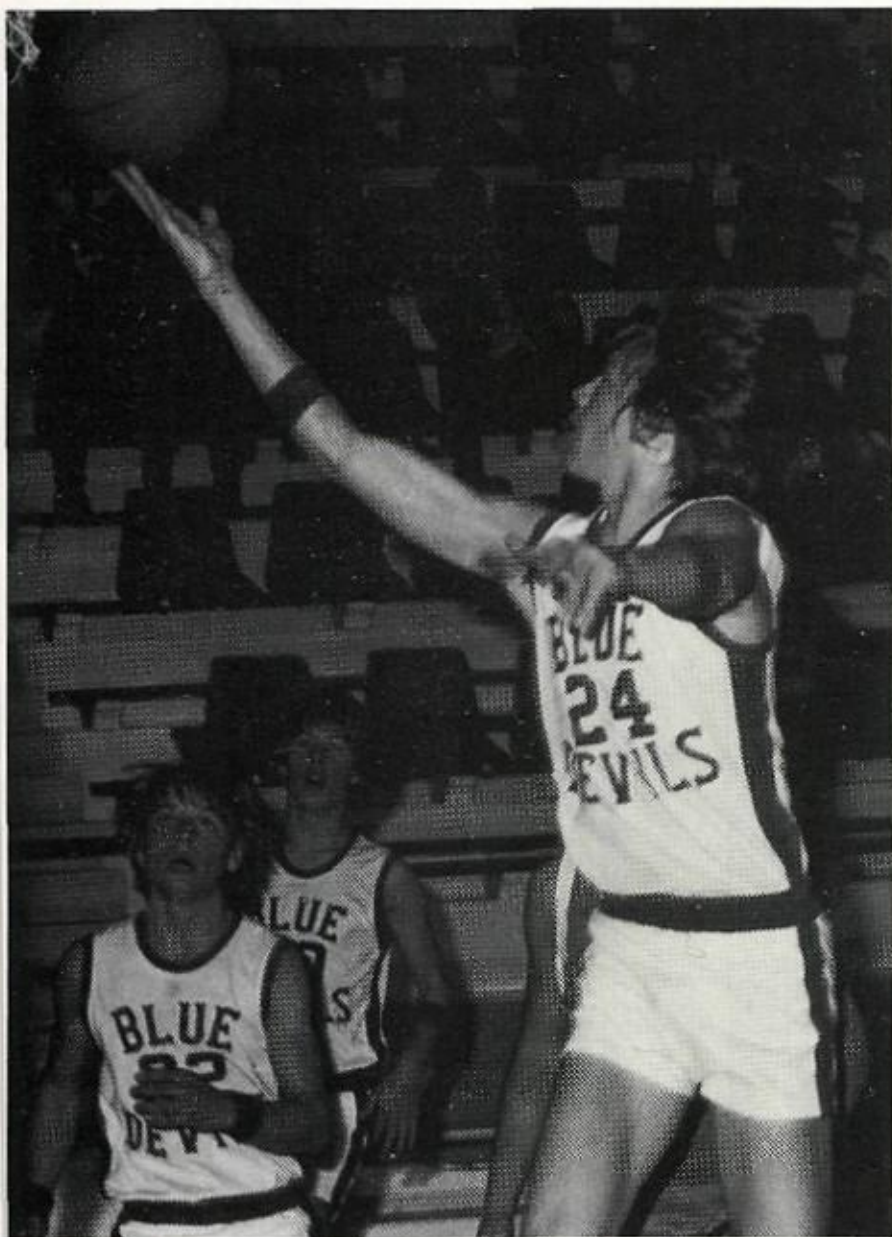

Cynthia Skinner, pulls an escape.

What a big mouth Leigh Ann has!

The cheerleaders say, "Way to go, guys."

Scott shows his fancy layup.

Troy Lindsey, caught again.

Carin waits for Springtime.

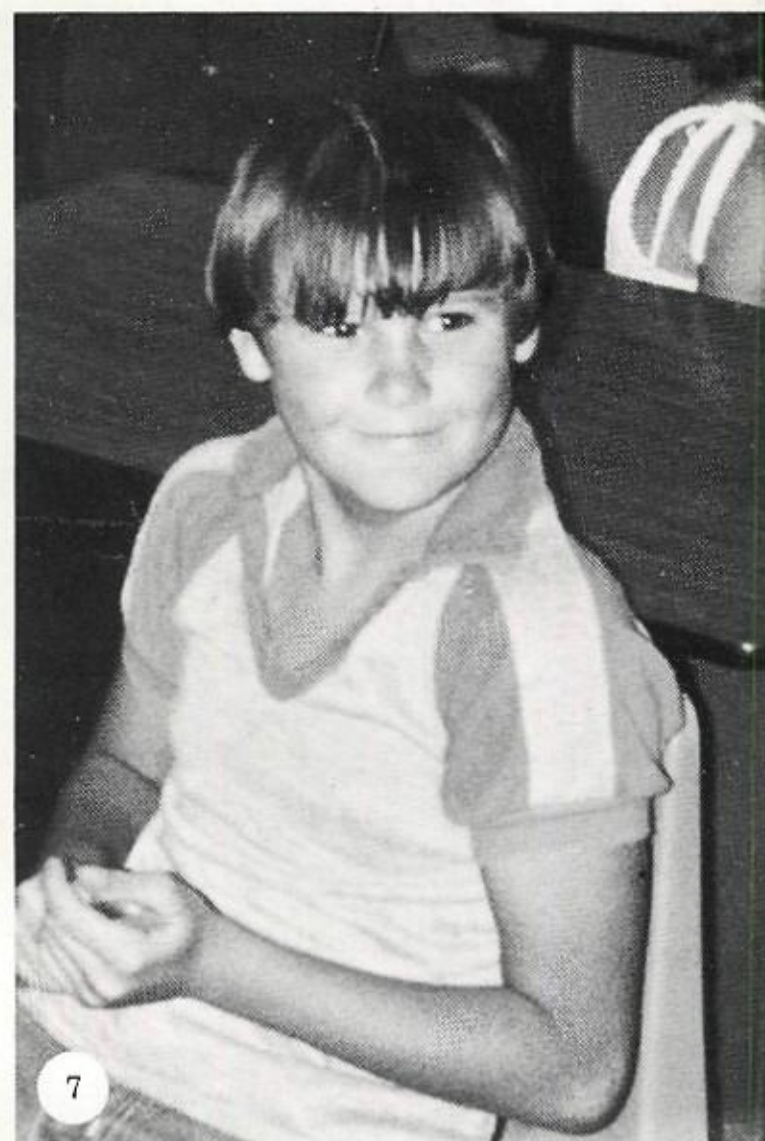

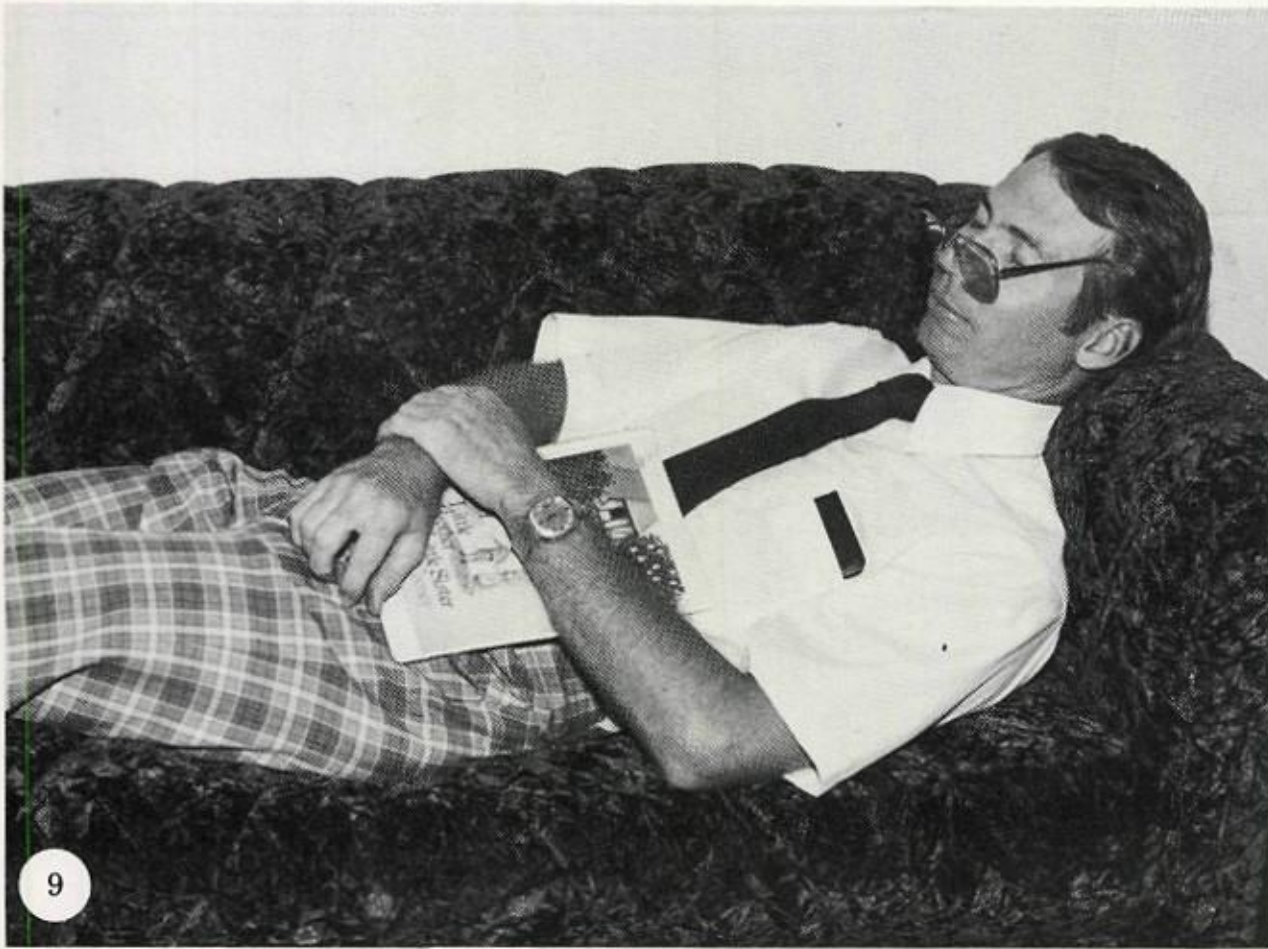

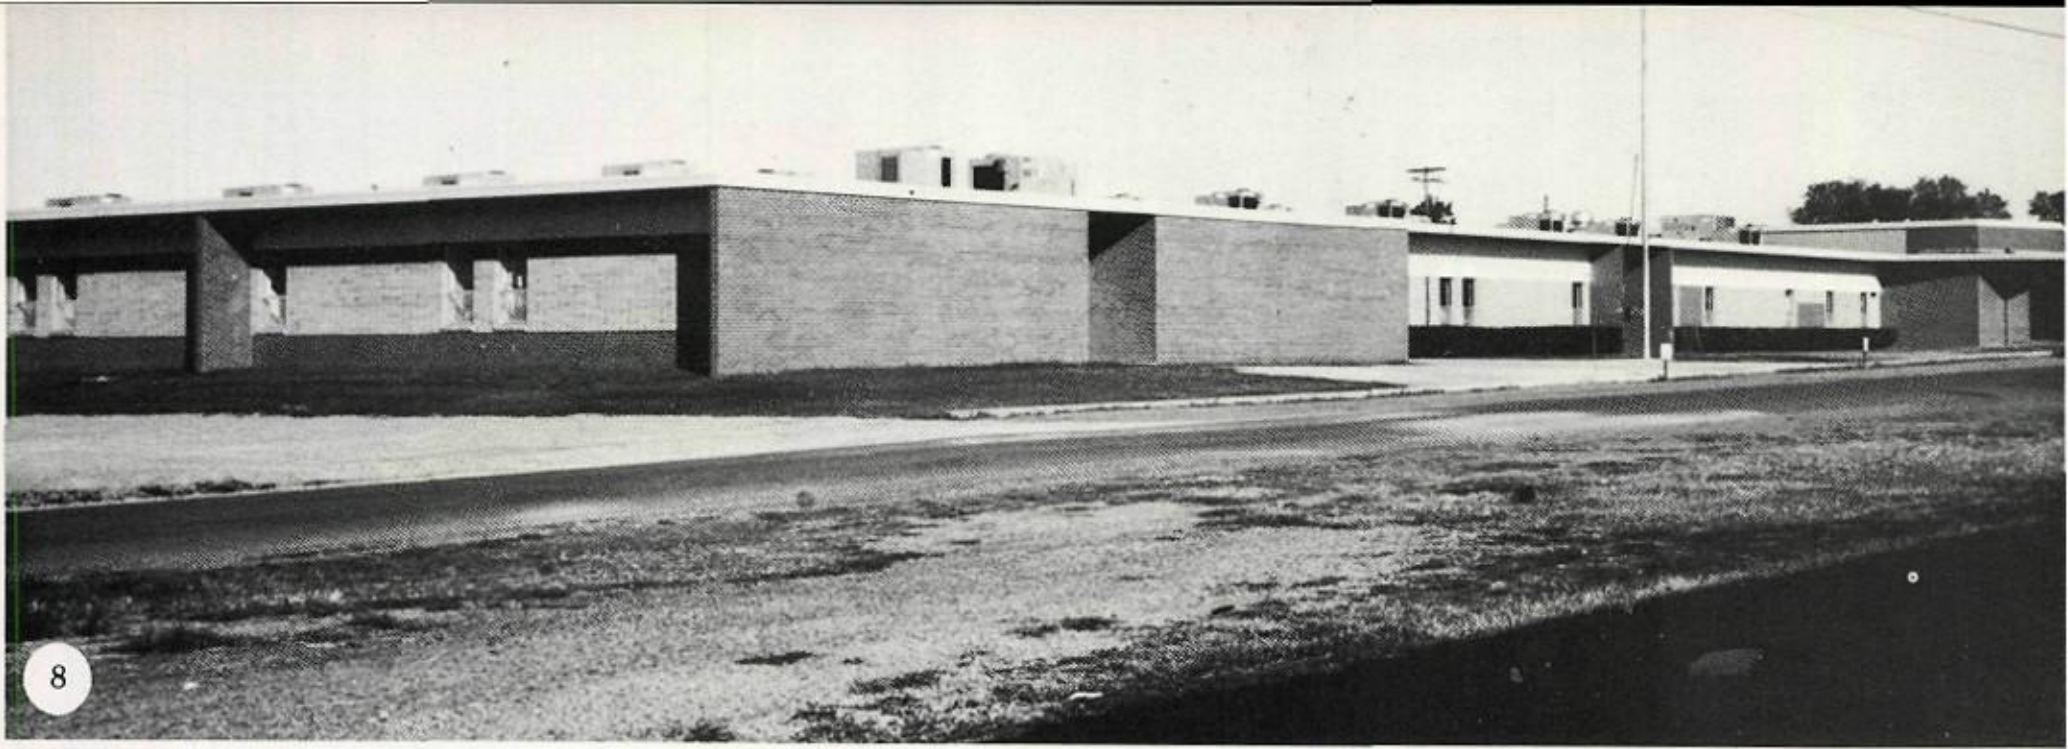

Janis and Kristy just love snowy days!

K-6 All in One Building...

That's Neat!

There is always a first time for everything, and this year is no exception. The new Cordell Elementary has everybody from Kindergarten through 6th grade all under one roof.

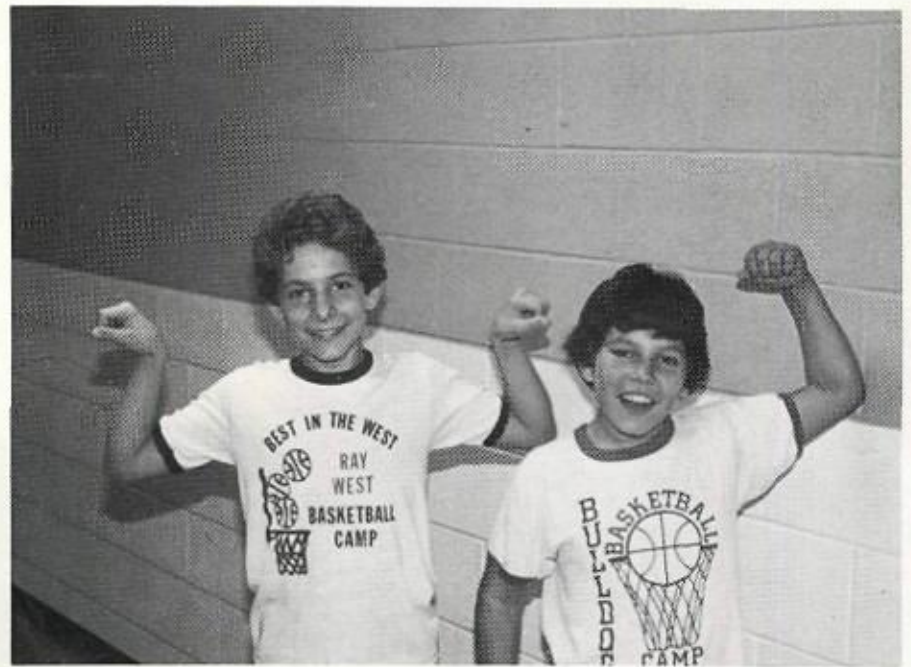

- ① Cherilyn Dudgeon is caught in the act.
- ② Michael Rainbolt, you're so cute!
- ③ Marcie Miller and Cindy Nickel demonstrate the way to play "Leap Frog."
- ④ Tammy Frahm, why are you sitting in the hall?
- ⑤ Tamara Humphreys is all smiles.
- ⑥ Monna Rea McMahan, you better pay attention to your teacher.
- ⑦ Steven Taylor is lying his way out of trouble again.
- ⑧ "And will the New Cordell Elementary please stand up!"
- ⑨ Mr. Arrington catches a few Z's after a long day.
- ⑩ Mrs. Vice, what has your class done now?
- ⑪ Mrs. Butler poses at open house.
- ⑫ Dakota Bettis in complete concentration.

Seniors . . .

Look Back in Time

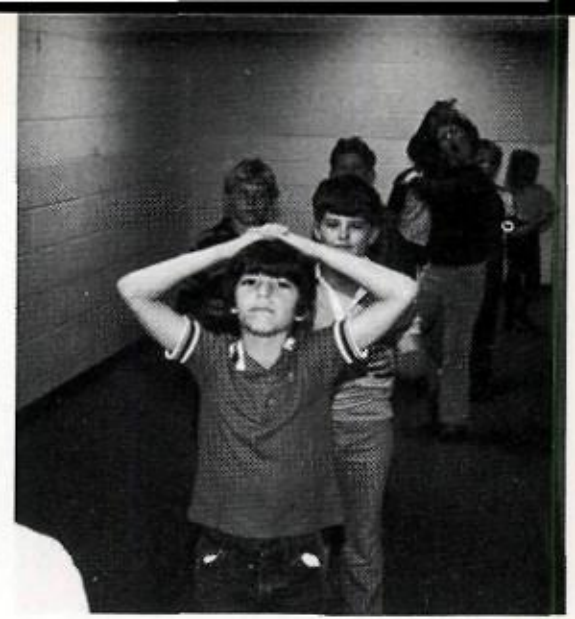

What an idea!!!

To the lunch room again!!

This is a good place for a stickup.

Did I take a wrong turn on the way to Alaska?

The new Fred Astaire and Ginger Rodgers

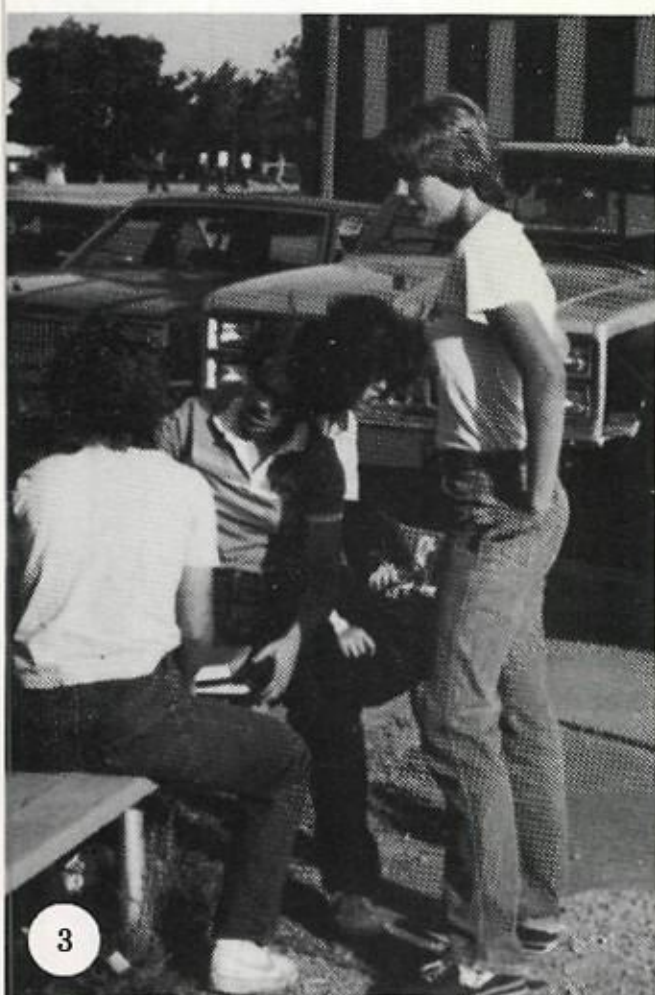

We're holding up the fence.

"She is about to tell them what grade I made!"

One ½ of the odd couple

- ① Julie and Carmen always take school seriously.
- ② Tammy can't believe that she survived that strenuous practice.
- ③ June always tells it like it is.
- ④ An excellent performance by Garrette and Melissa in the musical "South Pacific."
- ⑤ Rhonda says, "There's NO WAY they'll get me to do this history assignment."
- ⑥ Annual Staffers hard at work ... as usual.

Goodbye my friends, Maybe for forever
Goodbye my friends, The stars wait for me
Who knows when we shall meet again
If ever
But time
Keeps flowing like a river
To the sea, to the sea
Till it's gone forever
Gone forever
Gone forevermore . . .

You have been my friend in 5th grade.
Good luck with the boys.
Stephanie

Sherrin is a nice girl

Kenny G,

Sherrill, you're a good friend and a nice girl.
Crystal

Sherrie,
I have enjoyed
you in my class.
You are a super sweet girl and a good student. Keep it up. See you around.
Love ya,
m.

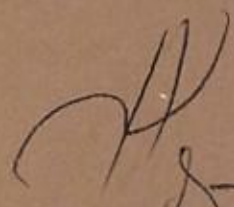

Love ya,
Mrs. Wanda Price

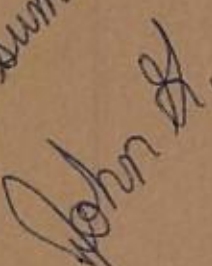

My dear
we hope you are well now more together than before we can be good friends.
I am yours
affectionately
John

Tracey

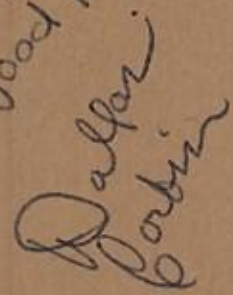

Guess who! Your favorite idol! me! (joke)
Well, we've passed through another year of
Jr. High & are finally the big ones of O.H.
(well, some of us!) You're a super smart & nice girl. Stay that way & you'll go far.
Good luck in the future & start writing you Salutory speech! ^{HA} ^{HA} (It'll probably be me writing it ↑) So have fun this summer & I'll see ~~ya~~ ya tomorrow.  Derrick Hall

To a sweet girl
with class

 Steph.

Tracey, I think you are one of the quietest but smartest girls I know. Do a good job in 9th so I can't say "she's a real dummy". Have a fun summer!
 John H.

To a nice and sweet girl always stay the way you are and you'll go far. Good luck in 9th
